The philosophy of the line is epitomized in a garment that can be a sweater, a dress and a scarf, all in one. A seamless, tubular tunic-length piece in merino wool: so light, almost airy.

According to your personal taste or mood, you can turn it into a stylish cowl neck, easily slipping down on one shoulder, or a hooded shrug; even still, an all-purpose piece, with ample sleeves, or sleeveless, or even a dress.

Last it can be worn as a warm shawl wrapping around your shoulders, or as a thick and stylish scarf.

Simplicity is the ultimate sophistication
